About Me

Hello and welcome — I'm Jameela Esa, a Certified Divorce Real Estate Specialist and licensed REALTOR® with Keller Williams Realty Atlanta Partners Northeast. I help individuals and families navigate one of life's most significant transitions — selling or purchasing a home during or after divorce.

I've been a licensed REALTOR® since 2019, specializing in residential real estate and divorce-related property sales across Georgia.

My approach combines real estate expertise with emotional intelligence — understanding the financial, legal, and personal complexities that arise during major life transitions.

Alongside my real estate career, I also serve as a Senior Customer Experience Program Manager at Microsoft, where I lead strategic initiatives focused on enhancing customer satisfaction and operational excellence. With over 15 years of experience in Information Technology, I have held roles as a Software Engineer, Support Engineer, and Program Manager, resolving complex software and customer support challenges. This technical foundation strengthens my analytical and problem-solving skills, which I bring to every real estate transaction.

By leveraging my extensive professional network — including attorneys, mediators, mortgage brokers, appraisers, and home inspectors — I ensure my clients experience a smooth, coordinated process from listing to closing.

My commitment to education and professional growth is evident through continuous learning and numerous certifications. I hold a Master's degree in Computer Information Systems and maintain a growth mindset centered on continuous improvement. As an active member of several real estate and legal professional organizations, I stay informed on market trends, family law developments, and best practices — allowing me to provide my clients and colleagues with relevant, actionable insights.

Through years of experience, I've developed a profound understanding of both the emotional and logistical challenges families encounter during major life transitions. My goal is to guide each client with clarity, compassion, and confidence, transforming one of life's most challenging moments into an opportunity for healing, stability, and new beginnings.
